

Protecting the Privacy of Your Personal Health Information

Your dentist understands that health information about you is personal and must be protected.

For these reasons, your dentist will:

- ✓ Provide the highest level of confidentiality around the collection, use, and disclosure of your personal health information;
- ✓ Collect only necessary information and use that information solely for the care and treatment you are seeking;
- ✓ Disclose only information necessary for the delivery and management of your care to those involved in that care – this could include laboratory, another health care provider, or your health insurance plan;
- ✓ Ask your permission before disclosing any of your information for purposes not related directly to your care and treatment, unless otherwise authorized by law;
- ✓ Recognize your right of access to your health information when you request it;
- ✓ Be available to respond to your questions or concerns about the way we handle the privacy of your personal health information.
